

COASTWISE NORTH DEVON

SPRING PROGRAMME 2019 17 January - 21 March

Thursdays 9.45 - 11.45 am Barnstaple Library

January

- 17 The Fate of HMS Montague - Lundy's huge wreck, Graham Scott, Wessex Archaeology
- 24 What we find on the Shore, Jan Whittington, Coastwise North Devon
- 31 Fighting Sea Anemones, Sarah Lane, University of Plymouth

February

- 7 Somerset's Brilliant Coast -Can marine fieldwork really change hearts and minds? Mark Ward, Somerset Wildlife Trust
- 14 The Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority in North Devon, Lauren Parkhouse, IFCA
- 21 "My Mobile Rock-pool", Ben Holt, Project Director
- 28 Monitoring Lundy's Marine Protected Area, Robert Irvine, Marine Environment Consultant

March

- 7 Rescuing Marine Mammals, Dan Jarvis, BDMLR Co-ordinator
- 14 History That Hurts: slavery, looting & fascism in Devon, Todd Gray, Historian
- 21 Beach Visit, details later

New members welcome, just come along & try a session

£30 for 10 Sessions. Associate membership of £5 per term & pay per talk

For more information & associated activities see www.coastwisenorthdevon.org.uk or contact Membership Secretary - 01271 861251

FACEBOOK - Coastwise North Devon, Twitter - @CoastwiseR